Note

Brenda Brownlee was a student at Trent University, class of 1966. She graduated in 1970 from the Bachelor of Arts program and continued her education through the Anthropology honors program and later entered graduate school in Toronto. As a student at Trent University, she was also a prompter for the Dramatis Personae productions of Gilbert and Sullivan's, "Patience," (1964) and "The Mikado" (1970). Additionally, Brenda was hired as a student to complete an inventory collection of Inuit art at Lady Eaton College.
