Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Dale Standen has played various key roles at both Trent University and the Canadian Canoe Museum. Standen is Professor Emeritus of History at Trent University and has served terms as chair of the Department of History, liaison with Trent's Frost Centre, and the Principal of Lady Eaton College. Standen's research pertains to early colonial history of Canada with a focus on French-Indigenous relations and how museums interpret history. Standen has also held various positions at the Canadian Canoe Museum, including Director on the Board of the Canadian Canoe Museum (ended spring 2004), as a Councilor of the Champlain Society, as President of the French Colonial Historical Society, and as Director of the Board of the Peterborough Historical Society (2018-2019). Standen also assisted in the re-structuring of the Canadian Canoe Museum when they temporarily closed for financial reasons in 2003-2004.

Scope and content

Fonds consists of records related to Dale Standen's involvement at Trent University and the re-structuring of the Canadian Canoe Museum. Records include professional and scholarly correspondence, manuscripts, essays, articles, book reviews, and requested reviews and assessments. Fonds also includes material documenting the Canadian Canoe Museum re-structuring, including committee action plans, meeting minutes, membership correspondence, and program files. The fonds is organized into four series: Correspondence and professional files; Trent University materials; Research, publishing, and conference files; and Canadian Canoe Museum files.
