Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

David Stirling Macmillan was born 9 October 1925 in Scotland. He received his Masters degree from Glasgow, Scotland in 1949, and in 1965 his Ph.D. from Sydney, Australia. He was an archivist who worked as a temporary Assistant Keeper for the Scottish Record Office (now National Records of Scotland) in Edinburgh, Scotland, 1949-50, and then the University of Sydney from 1954 to 1968, where he was the first university archivist. He was named a Fellow of the Royal Australian History Society. He left Australia in 1968 to come to Trent University, where he was a professor for 20 years and taught History from 1968 to 1987. He taught courses such as the Expansion of Europe, 1400-1825 and Russian History, as well as his specialty, Business and Economic History. He also taught some evening courses at Durham College in Oshawa for Trent. He received the Eminent Service Award in 1987. After a lengthy illness David Stirling Macmillan died 4 September 1987.

Custodial history

This fonds was created by Professor David S. Macmillan and in his custody until the time of his death. At this point, his wife, Nancy Macmillan followed his instructions that the records be given to the Trent University Archives.

Scope and content

This fonds consists of correspondence, research notes and original documents which were collected by Professor David Macmillan during his research. Items such as voters' lists for Victoria County, Ontario and a series of broadsides advertising land in Victoria County; documents from the Hudson's Bay Company,

East Indies; minutes from the Barbados Board of Legislative Council, a Sydney Australia Company, and the Sydney Australian Committee of the New Steam Company; and a number of reproduction engravings and prints are included in the fonds. Also included in the fonds is a copy of Macmillan's 1964 Ph.D. thesis: "The Scottish Australian Connection..." and assorted pamphlets relating to New South Wales.

Notes

Title notes

- Source of title proper: Title based on creator of fonds.

Physical condition

Some of the records are quite brittle. Handle with care and gloves should be worn for all records.

Immediate source of acquisition

This fonds was given to Trent University at the bequest of Professor David Macmillan.

Arrangement

In January 2025, the materials in some folders were further arranged into subfolders (typically lettered a, b, c, etc), in order to better describe materials. The finding aid was also organized into series representing broad geographical groupings. It should be noted that these categories are not mutually exclusive, given the involvement of Scotland and England in operations in Australia, North America, Barbados, and other locations.

Restrictions on access

Permission of University Archivist.

Accruals

The Macmillan fonds/collection includes this accession, 94-002, 05-003, and 08-012.

Note [General]

Records relating to the Scottish Australian Trading Company relocated to the National Archives of Australia, September, 2007.

Note [General]

Over-sized items located in Large Materials Cabinet - Drawer 32.
